

JAIN INTERNATIONAL POWER LIMITED

CODE OF CONDUCT
FOR PREVENTION OF ABUSIVE INSIDER TRADING

(ADOPTED AT THE BOARD MEETING HELD ON 8TH SEPTEMBER, 2025)

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. Regulation 9 of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2024 (“Insider Trading Regulations” or “Regulations”), requires that the Board of Directors of every listed company, as well as the Board of Directors or heads of intermediaries, must ensure that the CEO or Managing Director creates a Code of Conduct. This Code should regulate, monitor, and report trading activities of designated persons and their immediate relatives to comply with these regulations, adhering to the minimum standards outlined in Schedule B, without compromising the regulations in any way.
- 1.2. The Regulations specify that each listed company, intermediary, and other entities formulating a Code of Conduct must appoint a Compliance Officer to oversee the Code of Conduct and fulfil other regulatory requirements.
- 1.3. In accordance with these requirements, Jain International Power Limited (“the Company”) has implemented this Code of Conduct for the Prevention of Insider Trading concerning its listed securities. The Code applies to all Designated Persons, their Immediate Relatives, and other connected persons.

2. OBJECT OF THE CODE

2.1. The objective of the Code is:

- 2.1.1. To ensure an ethical and transparent approach when dealing with the Company's Securities.
- 2.1.2. To enhance the internal control framework to prevent unauthorised disclosure of UPSI.
- 2.1.3. To restrict and prohibit the sharing of UPSI with unauthorised individuals, which originates from within the company and could impact the market price of the Company, as well as damage its reputation and erode investor or financier confidence.
- 2.1.4. To implement a consistent code of conduct to deter unethical practices related to sharing UPSI by Insiders, Employees, and Designated Persons with any individual, entity, company, or organisation.
- 2.1.5. To Initiate investigations in case of UPSI leaks or suspected leaks and promptly inform the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) about such incidents.
- 2.1.6. To impose penalties on any Insider, Employee, or Designated Person found guilty of violating this policy.

3. SCOPE OF THE CODE

- 3.1. The Company aims to maintain the confidentiality of unpublished price-sensitive information (UPSI) and prevent its misuse. Efforts will be made to prevent the sharing of UPSI originating from within the company by any promoter, director, key managerial person, Insider, employee, designated person, support staff, or any other individual, known or unknown, with unauthorised parties. Such sharing can impact the market price of the Company and damage its reputation, as well as erode investor or financier confidence.

5. COMPLIANCE OFFICER

- 5.1. Under the Board of Directors' supervision, the Compliance Officer is responsible for:
- 5.1.1. Establishing policies and procedures, ensuring adherence to the Code and Insider Trading Regulations to protect Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, approving and reviewing trading plans, pre-clearing Trades, monitoring Trades, and implementing this Code.
 - 5.1.2. Assisting insiders, Designated Persons, and employees with any clarifications regarding insider trading regulations and this Code.
 - 5.1.3. Collecting disclosures from insiders and Designated Persons and providing the relevant information to all stock exchanges where the Securities are listed, as applicable.
 - 5.1.4. Maintaining and preserving all disclosures, undertakings, and applications made under this Code.
 - 5.1.5. Regulating and monitoring the Trading Window for the Company's Securities.
 - 5.1.6. Advising all Designated Persons not to trade in the Company's Securities when the Trading Window is closed.
 - 5.1.7. Investigating any Designated Person in relation to the Trading of Securities and the handling of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information of the Company.
 - 5.1.8. Informing the stock exchange/SEBI if any violations of this Code are observed.
- 5.2. The Compliance Officer will report to the Board of Directors and provide reports to the chairman of the Audit Committee as frequently as stipulated by the Board of Directors, but at least once a year.

6. CHIEF INVESTOR RELATIONS OFFICER'S DUTIES

- 6.1. The CIO shall be responsible for the following:
- 6.1.1. Ensure compliance with this policy.
 - 6.1.2. Notify the stock exchanges of any actual or suspected leak of UPSI.
 - 6.1.3. Coordinate with and provide relevant information about the incident of actual or suspected leak of UPSI to the inquiry committee.
 - 6.1.4. Report incidents of actual or suspected leak of UPSI to the Board of Directors and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), along with inquiries and their outcomes.

7. RESTRICTIONS ON COMMUNICATION OR PROCUREMENT OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION (UPSI)

- 7.1. No Insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI) related to the Company or its Securities, whether listed or proposed to be listed, to any person, including other Insiders, except where such communication is for legitimate purposes, the performance of duties, or the fulfilment of legal obligations.
- 7.2. No person shall obtain or cause the communication of UPSI from any Insider, except in the context of legitimate purposes, performance of duties, or legal obligations.
- 7.3. Explanation: "Legitimate purpose" includes, but is not limited to, sharing UPSI in the ordinary course of business with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals, or other advisors or consultants, provided such sharing is not intended to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of this Code or the Insider Trading Regulations.
- 7.4. Anyone who receives UPSI for a "legitimate purpose" will be considered an "Insider" under this policy and must be duly notified to maintain the confidentiality of the UPSI in compliance with this Code.
- 7.5. Notwithstanding anything in this Code, Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI) may be communicated, provided, accessed, or procured in connection with a transaction that:
- 7.5.1. Requires an open offer under the Takeover Regulations, if the Board of Directors believes that sharing the information is in the best interest of the Company.
 - 7.5.2. Does not require an open offer under the Takeover Regulations, but the Board of Directors believes that sharing the information is in the best interest of the Company. In this case, the UPSI must be made Generally Available Information at least two Trading Days before the proposed transaction, in a manner determined by the Board of Directors to be adequate and fair, covering all relevant and material facts.
- 7.6. The Board of Directors shall require parties to sign agreements enforcing confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations. These parties must keep the information confidential and must not trade in the Company's Securities while possessing Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI).
- 7.7. The Board of Directors shall ensure the maintenance of a structured digital database containing the names of persons or entities with whom information is shared under the Insider Trading Regulations, along with their Permanent Account Number (PAN) or another authorised identifier if PAN is unavailable. This database shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks, such as time-stamping and audit trails, to prevent tampering.

- 7.8. Every Designated Person or their Immediate Relative who receives UPSI regarding the Company or its Securities, whether for legitimate purposes, on a need-to-know basis, or in any other manner as provided in this Code or the Insider Trading Regulations, must provide their details, including name, PAN, and any other necessary information, to maintain the Company's digital database.

8. RESTRICTION ON TRADING WHEN IN POSSESSION OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION (UPSI)

- 8.1. Except as permitted by this Code and the Insider Trading Regulations, no Insider shall trade in the Company's Securities while in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI).

Explanation: If a person trades in Securities while in possession of UPSI, it will be presumed that the trade was influenced by the knowledge and awareness of that information.

- 8.2. Provided that the Insider may prove his/her innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following:

- 8.2.1. the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between Insiders who possessed the same Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI) without violating clause 8, and both parties made a conscious and informed trading decision.
- 8.2.2. provided that such UPSI was not obtained under Clause 7.5 of this Code. Additionally, these off-market trades must be reported by the Insiders to the Company within 2 (two) working days. The Company shall notify the stock exchange where the Securities are listed within two trading days from receiving the disclosure or becoming aware of such information.
- 8.2.3. the transaction was executed through the block deal window mechanism between persons who possessed the UPSI without violating Clause 8, and both parties made a conscious and informed trading decision. Provided that such UPSI was not obtained by either person under Clause 7.5 of this Code.
- 8.2.4. the transaction was carried out due to a statutory or regulatory obligation to perform a bona fide transaction.
- 8.2.5. the transaction was conducted pursuant to the exercise of stock options, where the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.
- 8.2.6. in the case of non-individual Insiders:
- 8.2.6.1. that the individuals who possessed the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI) were different from those making the trading decisions, and the decision-makers did not have access to the UPSI at the time they made the trading decisions; and
- 8.2.6.2. that appropriate and adequate measures were in place to ensure compliance with the Insider Trading Regulations, preventing the communication of

UPSI from the informed individuals to the decision-makers, with no evidence of these measures being breached;

- 8.2.7. the Trades were pursuant to a trading plan as set out in this Code.
- 8.3. Insiders must keep all Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI) confidential. While in possession of UPSI, they must not trade in the Company's Securities based on this information or share it with others, either directly or indirectly, by recommending trading in the Company's Securities.
- 8.4. For Connected Persons, the responsibility to prove that they did not possess UPSI lies with them.

9. PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

9.1. TRADING PLAN

- 9.1.1. An Insider may create a trading plan and submit it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure. Trades may then be executed on behalf of the Insider in accordance with this plan. The notification regarding the creation of the trading plan should be provided to the Compliance Officer using the format specified in Annexure A attached hereto. Once the trading plan is approved, the Compliance Officer will notify the plan to the stock exchanges where the Securities are listed.
- 9.1.2. Such trading plan shall:
- 9.1.2.1. Not involve the initiation of Trading on behalf of the Insider before 6 (six) months from the public disclosure of the trading plan;
 - 9.1.2.2. Not involve Trading during the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which the Company's results are required to be announced and the second Trading Day after the disclosure of such financial results;
 - 9.1.2.3. Not involve Trading for a period less than 12 (twelve) months;
 - 9.1.2.4. Not overlap with any existing trading plan period;
 - 9.1.2.5. Specify either the value of trades or the number of Securities to be traded, along with the nature of the trade and the intervals or dates on which such Trades will occur;
 - 9.1.2.6. Not involve Trading in securities for market abuse;
 - 9.1.2.7. Mandate strict adherence to the plan without any deviation, and no Trades should be executed outside the scope of the trading plan. Once published, the trading plan is irrevocable. However, the Insider shall not commence Trading under the trading plan if any UPSI in their possession at the time of formulating the plan has not become Generally Available Information by the time of plan implementation. In such cases, the Compliance Officer will confirm whether the commencement should be deferred until such UPSI becomes Generally Available Information.
- 9.1.3. The Compliance Officer will examine the trading plan to determine if it could potentially violate SEBI Regulations and/or this Code. The Compliance Officer is authorised to request specific undertakings to facilitate this assessment and to approve and oversee the implementation of the plan.

- 9.1.4. After the trading plan is approved, the compliance officer will inform the stock exchanges where the securities are listed.
- 9.1.5. Trades executed according to an approved trading plan do not require pre-clearance. Additionally, trading window norms and restrictions on contra trades will not apply to Trades conducted in accordance with an approved trading plan.

9.2. TRADING WINDOW

- 9.2.1. All Designated Persons must conduct trades in the Company's Securities only during a valid trading period, known as the Trading Window, as defined below. They are prohibited from engaging in any trade or transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's Securities, whether in their own name or in the name of their Immediate Relatives, during the period when the Trading Window is closed or any other period specified by the Company from time to time.
- 9.2.2. The Trading Window for Trading in Securities of the Company shall be closed for the following purposes:
 - 9.2.2.1. Declaration of financial results (quarterly and annual), standalone and consolidated, of the Company.
 - 9.2.2.2. Intended declaration of dividends (both interim and final).
 - 9.2.2.3. Issue of securities by way of public, bonus, rights issue etc. or buy-back of Securities and changes in capital structure.
 - 9.2.2.4. Change in Key Managerial Personnel.
 - 9.2.2.5. Mergers, demergers, amalgamations, acquisitions, delisting, disposals, expansion of business and such other transactions.
 - 9.2.2.6. Material events in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) (Amendment) Regulations, 2024.
- 9.2.3. Apart from the situations mentioned above, the Trading Window will also be closed when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Person or group of Designated Persons could reasonably be expected to possess Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. This closure will apply to the Securities related to such information.
- 9.2.4. During the announcement of financial results, the Trading Window will be closed from the first day of the financial period for which results are to be announced until 48 hours after the public release of the results. In other cases, the commencement of the Trading Window closure will be determined by the Compliance Officer. It is recommended to minimise the gap between the Audit Committee's clearance of accounts and the Board meeting, preferably on the same day, to prevent material information leakage.
- 9.2.5. The Compliance Officer, considering various factors including the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information becoming Generally Available Information and being absorbable by the market, will decide when to reopen the Trading Window. However, the Trading Window cannot be reopened earlier than 48 hours after the information becomes Generally Available Information.
- 9.2.6. The Company may close the Trading Window for additional periods as deemed appropriate by the Compliance Officer.

- 9.2.7. Notification of the closure of the Trading Window will be sent to the stock exchanges, if any, where the Company's Securities are listed.
- 9.2.8. The trading window restriction shall not apply for below cases;
- 9.2.8.1. Off-market transfer between insiders who possessed the same UPSI without violating the Code, and both parties made a conscious and informed trading decision.
 - 9.2.8.2. Transaction conducted through the block deal window mechanism between persons who possessed the UPSI without violating the Code, and both parties made a conscious and informed trading decision.
 - 9.2.8.3. Transaction carried out due to a statutory or regulatory obligation for a bona fide purpose.
 - 9.2.8.4. Transaction executed pursuant to the exercise of stock options with a pre-determined exercise price in compliance with applicable regulations.
 - 9.2.8.5. Trades conducted according to a trading plan established in compliance with the Code.
 - 9.2.8.6. Pledge of shares for legitimate purposes such as fundraising, subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer.
 - 9.2.8.7. Transactions conducted in accordance with SEBI regulations, such as acquisition through conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment, tendering of shares in buy-back offer, open offer, delisting offer, or transactions carried out through other mechanisms specified by the Board from time to time.

9.3. PRE-CLEARANCE

- 9.3.1. During a valid Trading Window, Trading by Designated Persons will require pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer if the proposed Trade value exceeds the threshold limit specified in sub-clause 9.3.4 below.
- 9.3.2. Designated Persons can deal in the Securities of the Company up to the threshold limit specified in sub-clause 9.3.3 below without pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer. For transactions exceeding this limit, they must follow the pre-dealing procedure as outlined hereafter.

9.3.3. Procedure for Pre-Clearance

A request for pre-clearance of a Trade must be submitted to the Compliance Officer using the format provided in Annexure B attached hereto. The application should include the estimated number of Securities the Designated Person intends to deal in, along with details of the depository where they hold a security account, and any other information requested by the Compliance Officer in this regard.

- 9.3.3.1. Before approving any trades, the Compliance Officer may request declarations confirming that the applicant for pre-clearance does not possess any UPSI. The Compliance Officer will also consider whether such declarations could reasonably become inaccurate.

- 9.3.3.2. If the Compliance Officer intends to trade in the securities of the Company beyond the threshold limit specified in sub-clause 9.3.5 below, pre-clearance from the Managing Director or, in their absence, the Chairman of the Board, will be required.
- 9.3.3.3. Persons applying for pre-clearance must execute an undertaking in the format provided in Annexure C of this Code in favour of the Company.
- 9.3.3.4. Upon receiving an application, the Compliance Officer will provide the Designated Persons with an acknowledgment on the duplicate of the application or in any electronic form.
- 9.3.3.5. Approval, in the format provided in Annexure D, will be granted by the Compliance Officer within 2 (two) days from the date of acknowledgment.
- 9.3.3.6. The Compliance Officer will keep copies of all applications and acknowledgments either in physical or electronic form.
- 9.3.3.7. In exceptional circumstances, approval may be withheld if the Compliance Officer believes that the proposed deal is based on possession of UPSI. There is no obligation to provide reasons for withholding consent.
- 9.3.4. Threshold Limit for Pre-clearance: Pre-clearance will not be required if the total value of Securities traded, whether in a single transaction or a series of transactions within a calendar quarter, does not exceed Rs. 10,00,000.
- 9.3.5. Validity of Pre-clearance Period: Designated Persons must complete the execution of their pre-cleared Trades involving Securities of the Company no later than 7 (seven) Trading Days after the pre-clearance approval is granted. Otherwise, fresh pre-clearance will be necessary for the Trades to be executed.
- 9.3.6. Reporting: Designated Persons who execute pre-cleared Trades must submit details of such Trades to the Compliance Officer within 2 trading days of execution, using the format provided in Annexure E of this Code. If such Trades are not executed, a report to that effect must also be filed with the Compliance Officer using the format in Annexure E of this Code.
- 9.3.7. Holding Period of Securities:
- 9.3.7.1. All Designated Persons permitted to Trade must refrain from entering into a contra Trade for the following 6 (six) months after the previous Trade.
- 9.3.7.2. If a contra trade is necessary due to an emergency, the Compliance Officer may waive the holding period after providing written reasons, provided that such waiver does not violate the Insider Trading Regulations or this Code. Similarly, in the event of an emergency trade by a Compliance Officer, they may obtain a waiver from the Managing Director or, in their absence, the Chairman of the Board, provided that such waiver does not contravene this Code or the Insider Trading Regulations. The application for waiver must be submitted in the format provided in Annexure F attached hereto.
- 9.3.7.3. If a contra Trade is executed inadvertently or otherwise in violation of this restriction, the profits from such Trade will be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

Provided that (9.3.7.1), (9.3.7.2) and (9.3.7.3) above shall not be applicable for Trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.

10. PRESERVATION OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

- 10.1. Access to Unpublished Price Sensitive Information will be granted only on a "need-to-know" basis, and no such information will be shared with any individual except for legitimate purposes, in the course of fulfilling duties, or to comply with legal obligations.
- 10.2. Files containing Unpublished Price Sensitive Information must be securely kept. Computer files should have adequate security measures like login credentials and passwords. Guidelines for managing electronic records and systems may be established by the Compliance Officer in consultation with the person responsible for the company's information technology function.
- 10.3. To prevent the misuse of UPSI, the Company implements the "Chinese Wall" Policy. This policy separates areas of the Company with regular access to UPSI, considered as "inside areas," from departments involved in sales/marketing or other support services, considered as "public areas."
- 10.4. According to the Code:
 - 10.4.1. Employees in the inside areas are prohibited from sharing any UPSI with anyone in the public areas.
 - 10.4.2. Employees in the inside area may be physically segregated from those in the public area.
 - 10.4.3. The delineation of various departments as inside areas may be established by the Compliance Officer in consultation with the Board of Directors.
 - 10.4.4. Employees within the inside area of the Chinese Walls are responsible for ensuring that the Chinese Wall is not breached intentionally or unintentionally. Any known or suspected breaches of the Chinese Wall must be reported to the Compliance Officer immediately.
 - 10.4.5. The establishment of the Chinese Wall does not imply that material Unpublished Price Sensitive Information can be freely circulated within inside areas. A need-to-know basis rule will be applied.
 - 10.4.6. Only in exceptional circumstances, Employees from the public areas may be allowed to "cross the wall" or be provided with UPSI on a "need-to-know" basis, with notification to the Compliance Officer. In such cases, the Compliance Officer will ensure that necessary restrictions are imposed on such Employee(s) regarding the protection of such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

11. DISCLOSURES

11.2.3. Disclosure by other Connected Persons

- 11.2.3.1. The Compliance Officer or the Company may, at their discretion, request any other Connected Person or group of Connected Persons to disclose their holdings and Trading in Securities of the Company in the format provided in Annexure I Form D attached hereto. This may be required at a frequency determined by the Compliance Officer to monitor compliance with the Insider Trading Regulations.

11.2.4. Other Disclosures by Designated Persons

- 11.2.4.1. The Designated Person is required to disclose the following information in Annexure J to the Company within 30 (thirty) days from the date this Code becomes applicable: (i) Phone, mobile, and cell numbers; (ii) Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorised by law; and (iii) Names of educational institutions from which Designated Persons have graduated and names of their past employers.

- 11.2.4.2. Annual Disclosure and Continual Disclosure: The Designated Person must disclose the following information to the Company in Annexure K within 30 (thirty) days from the end of the financial year and on a continual disclosure basis, within 7 (seven) days of such change: (i) Name of Immediate Relatives; (ii) Persons with whom such Designated Person(s) shares a material financial relationship; (iii) Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorised by law of (i) & (ii); (iv) Phone, mobile, and cell numbers of (i) and (ii).

Explanation – The term “material financial relationship” shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift from a Designated Person during the immediately preceding 12 (twelve) months, equivalent to at least 25% of the annual income of such Designated Person but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm’s length transactions. Compliance Officer at its discretion may extend / waive the aforesaid period for the disclosures (a) and (b) above.

All disclosures under this code must be made in the prescribed formats and must be sent to the Compliance Officer at: jain9830323868@gmail.com. The original disclosures must be sent at the following address: Room No. 17/B, 2nd Floor 24, N.S. Road, Kolkata-700001

12. PRESERVATION OF DISCLOSURES

All commitments, disclosures, and applications made or submitted under these regulations will be retained by the Compliance Officer for a minimum period of eight years or for any period specified by the prevailing laws, whichever is longer.

13. DISSEMINATION OF PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

- 13.1. Designated Persons are prohibited from passing any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, including through recommendations for the purchase or sale of any Securities.
- 13.2. Disclosures/dissemination of Price Sensitive Information, particularly concerning analysts, media persons, and institutional investors:
- 13.3. Guidelines for dealing with analysts, media persons, and institutional investors:
- 13.3.1. Only public information should be provided.
 - 13.3.2. Meetings with analysts, media persons, and institutional investors should involve at least two company representatives.
 - 13.3.3. Unforeseen questions should be noted, and a thoughtful response should be provided later. If the response contains price-sensitive information, a public announcement should precede it. iv. Information should be released simultaneously to the public after every such meeting.

14. COMPLIANCE WITH CODE OF CONDUCT

- 14.1. The Compliance Officer will provide a quarterly compliance status report on this Code to the Chairman of the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors.
- 14.2. When a person who has traded in securities has had access to UPSI, it will be presumed that their trades were influenced by the knowledge of such information. It is the responsibility of the Insiders to prove their innocence.
- 14.3. The Compliance Officer will determine the method and timing for involving any individual(s) in any proposed or ongoing sensitive transaction(s). Individuals to be brought inside on any proposed or ongoing sensitive transaction(s) of the Company may include existing or proposed partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals, or other advisors or consultants, etc., for legitimate purposes, which shall include the following:
 - 14.3.1. in the ordinary course of business.
 - 14.3.2. as part of performing duty(ies);
 - 14.3.3. to fulfil legal obligation(s);
 - 14.3.4. for any other legitimate or reasonable purpose as determined by the Compliance Officer of the Company; and
 - 14.3.5. for any other purpose as specified under the Insider Trading Regulations or any other applicable law, subject to amendments from time to time.
- 14.4. Any individual(s) who have been brought inside on any proposed and/or ongoing sensitive transaction(s) and have received Unpublished Price Sensitive Information will be regarded as an "Insider" for the purposes of this Code. Adequate notice shall be provided to such individuals in the format specified by the Compliance Officer from time to time.
 - 14.4.1. To inform such individuals that the shared information is or will be confidential;
 - 14.4.2. To direct such individuals to maintain the confidentiality of such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in accordance with the Insider Trading Regulations; and
 - 14.4.3. To educate such individuals about the duties and responsibilities associated with receiving such information and the liability for its misuse or unauthorised use.
- 14.5. Chief Human Resources Officer shall ensure the following:
 - 14.5.1. Furnish updated and necessary information about Designated Persons to the Compliance Officer periodically.
 - 14.5.2. The Aid in obtaining initial disclosures from Designated Persons.
- 14.6. The Compliance officer will perform the following functions:
 - 14.6.1. Review and update the list of Designated Persons periodically.
 - 14.6.2. Conduct initial inquiries/investigations into alleged violations of the Code or the Insider Trading Regulations.
 - 14.6.3. Recommend to the Audit Committee the penalties to be imposed on Designated Persons for any breaches of the Code.
 - 14.6.4. Grant waivers for breaches of the Code that do not constitute violations of the Insider Trading Regulations.
 - 14.6.5. Request information/documents from the Designated Persons of the Company and their Immediate Relatives, as necessary, to enforce the provisions of this Code and the Insider Trading Regulations. It is the duty of such individuals to promptly provide the requested information/documents. Failure or refusal to cooperate in such inquiries will be considered a serious violation of the obligations to the Company under this Code.

15. CODE OF PRACTICES AND PROCEDURES FOR FAIR DISCLOSURE OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION (UPSI)

The Company has implemented the Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to ensure compliance with each of the principles outlined in accordance with Regulations, as detailed in Schedule A of the Regulations provided below:

- 15.1. The Company will promptly disclose unpublished price-sensitive information that could affect price discovery as soon as credible and concrete information becomes available to ensure its general availability.
- 15.2. The Company will ensure uniform and widespread distribution of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to prevent selective disclosure.
- 15.3. The Company has appointed a senior officer as the Chief Investor Relations Officer responsible for disseminating information and disclosing Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.
- 15.4. The Company will promptly disseminate any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information that has been selectively, inadvertently, or otherwise disclosed to ensure its general availability.
- 15.5. If any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is disclosed selectively, inadvertently, or otherwise, the Chief Investor Relations Officer, upon becoming aware of such partial disclosure, will upload the information on the Company's website and, if necessary, inform the stock exchange(s) to ensure its general availability.
- 15.6. The Company will provide appropriate and fair responses to queries on news reports and requests to verify market rumours by regulatory authorities. However, it is not obligated to respond to speculative news or press reports. If the stock exchange(s) inquire to clarify the position, the Company will make a formal announcement.
- 15.7. The Company will ensure that information shared with analysts and research personnel is not Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.
- 15.8. The Company will establish best practices to document transcripts or records of meetings with analysts and other investor relations conferences on the official website to confirm and document disclosures made.
- 15.9. All Unpublished Price Sensitive Information will be handled on a need-to-know basis, and recipients must not misuse or communicate such information to others. Any misuse of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be reported to the Chief Investor Relations Officer. This Code is subject to periodic review by the Board, which may amend, modify, or revise any or all clauses as needed.

16. INSTITUTIONAL MECHANISM FOR PREVENTION OF INSIDER TRADING

- 16.1. The Chief Executive Officer, Managing Director, or any equivalent personnel of a listed company, intermediary, or fiduciary must establish robust internal control systems to ensure compliance with the Insider Trading regulations and prevent Insider Trading.
- 16.2. The internal controls shall include the following:
 - 16.2.1. All employees who have access to unpublished price sensitive information shall be identified as designated persons.

- 16.2.2. Unpublished price sensitive information shall be identified, and its confidentiality shall be maintained according to the requirements of these regulations.
 - 16.2.3. Adequate restrictions shall be implemented on the communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information as mandated by these regulations.
 - 16.2.4. Lists of all employees and other individuals with whom unpublished price sensitive information is shared shall be maintained, and confidentiality agreements shall be signed or notice shall be served to all such employees and persons.
 - 16.2.5. All other relevant requirements specified under these regulations shall be adhered to.
 - 16.2.6. Periodic reviews shall be conducted to evaluate the effectiveness of such internal controls.
 - 16.3. If the Company initiates an inquiry into the leakage or suspected leakage of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, the relevant intermediaries and fiduciaries must cooperate with the Company during the inquiry process.
 - 16.4. The intermediary or fiduciary contracted by the Company must establish effective internal control systems to ensure compliance with the Insider Trading Regulations to prevent insider trading.
 - 16.5. The Company will engage intermediaries or fiduciaries who have developed Codes of Conduct as required under the Regulations, to regulate trading in securities by their designated persons and manage Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI) within their organisation.
 - 16.6. The Audit Committee will annually review compliance with these regulations and ensure that internal control systems are sufficient and operational.
- 17. PROCESS FOR INVESTIGATION IN CASE OF UNAUTHORISED DISCLOSURE OR SUSPECTED DISCLOSURE OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION
- 17.1. The Regulations require every listed company to create a documented policy and procedures for investigating instances of unauthorised disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information. Upon becoming aware of such leaks, the company is obligated to conduct appropriate inquiries and promptly report to the Board about these leaks, the inquiries conducted, and their outcomes. In compliance with this requirement, the Board of Directors of the Company has established this policy outlining the procedure for investigating instances of leaked Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (the "Policy") for adoption.
 - 17.2. Disclosure & Reporting of Actual or Suspected Leak of UPSI to Stock Exchanges:
 - 17.2.1. Upon discovering any actual or suspected leak of unpublished price-sensitive information of the Company, the Managing Director will assess whether disclosure to the stock exchanges is necessary as per the Listing Regulations and Insider Regulations. Following this, the Chief Investor Relation Officer will draft the disclosure content and decide on the timing of the disclosures.
 - 17.2.2. Subsequently, the Company Secretary will promptly inform the Stock Exchanges where the securities of the Company are listed in the required format.
 - 17.2.3. A report on such actual or suspect leak of UPSI, preliminary enquiry thereon and results thereof shall be promptly furnished to the SEBI in the prescribed format.

17.3. Constitution & Duties of Enquiry Committee:

- 17.3.1. The Board of Directors or any Committee authorised by them in this behalf, shall constitute a committee to be called as "Enquiry Committee". The Enquiry Committee shall consist of minimum 4 (four) Members which shall include Managing Director, Chief Financial Officer, Company Secretary and Chief Investor Relation Officer and any other officer of the Company as may be mutually decided by the members of the Committee.
- 17.3.2. Duties of Enquiry Committee include:
 - 17.3.2.1. The Enquiry Committee shall be responsible.
 - 17.3.2.2. To conduct a preliminary enquiry to ascertain the truth contained in the information or complaint pertaining to actual or suspected leak of UPSI, if any.
 - 17.3.2.3. To authorise any person to collect necessary evidence.
 - 17.3.2.4. To decide disciplinary action thereon.

17.4. Procedure for Enquiry in Case of Leak of UPSI:

- 17.4.1. Upon becoming aware, whether spontaneously or otherwise, of an actual or suspected leak of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information by any promoter, director, key managerial person, insider, employee, designated person, support staff, or any other known or unknown individual, the Chief Investor Officer (CIO) or Company Secretary, after notifying the Managing Director or Chief Financial Officer, shall adhere to the following procedure to inquire and/or investigate the matter to ensure:
 - 17.4.1.1. Preliminary Inquiry: The preliminary inquiry is a fact-finding process aimed at verifying the truth of the allegations in the information or complaint and gathering necessary material to support these allegations. This step determines whether there is a basis for initiating disciplinary action. The Inquiry Committee shall appoint or authorise any person(s) it deems fit to conduct an inquiry and collect relevant facts and evidence regarding the actual or suspected leak of UPSI.
 - 17.4.1.2. Report of Preliminary Inquiry to the Inquiry Committee: The person(s) appointed or authorised to investigate the matter of the actual or suspected leak of UPSI must submit their report to the Inquiry Committee within 7 days of their appointment.
 - 17.4.1.3. Disciplinary Action: Disciplinary actions may include wage freezes, suspension, recovery, termination of employment contracts or agreements, or other measures as decided by the Committee Members.

18. REPORTING

Retaliation against individuals for reporting suspected violations is strictly forbidden under this Code. Employees who report any alleged violations of insider trading laws using the informant mechanism introduced by Regulations will be safeguarded against discharge, termination, demotion, suspension, threats, harassment, whether direct or indirect, or discrimination.

19. PENALTIES

- 19.1. The responsibility for adhering to the provisions of the Insider Trading Regulations and the Code rests entirely on the Designated Persons of the Company and other connected persons, including any violations by their Immediate Relatives.
- 19.2. Any Designated Person or Insider who engages in trading in Securities or shares, provides, or allows access to any information for trading in Securities in violation of the Code will face penalties, and appropriate action will be taken by the Company based on their seniority, number, and nature of violations.
- 19.3. The penalties/actions imposed by the Company may include, but are not limited to:
 - 19.3.1. Reprimand of the defaulting Designated Person/Insider.
 - 19.3.2. Prohibition from engaging in any trade of the securities of the Company (including exercising stock options).
 - 19.3.3. Suspension from employment.
 - 19.3.4. Prohibition from participating in all future employee stock option schemes, including the lapse of all existing options.
 - 19.3.5. No increment and/or bonus payment.
 - 19.3.6. Termination of employment.
 - 19.3.7. Disgorgement of gains accrued through transactions in violation of the Code.
- 19.4. Apart from the actions that may be taken by the Company, individuals violating the Regulations and/or this Code may also face actions under the Act. Under this section, they may be liable to a penalty ranging from Rs. 10 lakhs to Rs. 25 crores or three times the amount of profits made from insider trading, whichever is higher. Additionally, they may face actions under Section 24 of the Act, which could result in imprisonment for up to 10 years and/or a fine of up to Rs. 25 Crores, along with other applicable laws.
- 19.5. If the Board observes any violation of Insider Trading Regulations, it will promptly inform the appropriate Regulatory Authorities, including but not limited to stock exchanges and SEBI.

20. AMENDMENTS AND MODIFICATIONS

If there is any conflict between the provisions of this Code and those of the Insider Trading Regulations, Takeover Regulations, or any other statutory or regulatory laws or rules, the provisions of such statutory or regulatory laws shall take precedence over the Code. Any later amendment or modification in the Insider Trading Regulations, Takeover Regulations, or other statutory or regulatory laws will automatically apply to this Code. In such cases, the Compliance Officer is authorised to amend the Code to reflect such changes, and the amended Code will be presented to the Board for acknowledgment and approval. This Code will be periodically reviewed, and the Board of Directors retains the authority to partially or fully modify, amend, or replace this Code as deemed appropriate at their absolute discretion.
